Orange Springs Events

The latest arrival at the Springs is Miss A. Lynn Lewis of Orange Lake, who is attending the normal.

Justice Farmer has been very busy the past few weeks with lawless negroes, one breaking into the large store of L. L. Meggs and stealing nearly $50 worth of goods, another entering a small restaurant and helping himself, and the third has been taking other people's boats upon the river. All three were captured, however, and now languish in the county jail.

W. C. Townsend, who has been spending the past week with his family at Lake Butler, has returned to look after his large turpentine business.

The normal and high school is steadily growing in reputation and popularity under a most efficient management, new faces appearing in the assembly room every week, while the constant arrival of new books, art studies and school apparatus keeps the students in constant touch with the great educational world beyond.

The lectures by Professor Burgess still continue to be an instructive feature. The last two upon "The Solar System" and "Other Stars in Space" were largely attended, these being the first of the scientific series. The next will be Thursday night upon "Anatomy and the Structure of the Bones," being the first of the physiological series. These lectures are illustrated by actual experiments with chemicals and a human skeleton, and are particularly beneficial to the teachers who are obliged to teach such in their schools.

Everything in the town seems to be rather lively. Rehearsals and meetings are in order for the celebration of Children's Day in the church next month. Mrs. Enecks will give a party for her son, Mr. Harry Collins, next Friday, to which a large number of expectant guests have been invited, and every one knows that such an invitation to her house means a hearty welcome and a good time for all.

Saturday the students of the normal and high school will give a picnic and fish fry at Fort Brooke on the river. Fishing, boating and games will be the order of the day and all anticipate a good time.

The event of the season has been the marriage of Prof. Albert S. Burgess, Ph. D. principal of the normal and high school, to Miss Lucille G. Hanna, one of Kentucky's most charming young ladies and a niece of Mark Hanna. The ceremony, which took place Easter Sunday morning, April 10th, 8 o'clock, at the Episcopal Church of St. Marks in Palatka, was performed with all the solemnity of the ritual of that church by Doctor Avery, the rector. The bride, beautifully gowned in pure white silk with white roses, looking exquisitely fair, was given away by Judge Box of Palatka. Quite a number of friends were assembled in the body of the church. Directly after the service a very recherche breakfast was tendered the newly wedded pair by Miss Clay at her residence, following which the bridal party took the train for Orange Springs. Among those who attended the wedding from here were Mrs. Julia Livingstone, Mr. Walter Douglass and several others.

A TRAVELING MAN

Gives Some Valuable Hints Regarding the Care of the Health While Traveling

Mr. R. W. Winchendon, a commercial traveller from Birmingham, whose business keeps him almost constantly on the road, relates in the Sunday News the dangers to health resulting from constant change of residence and the way he overcame the usual injurious effects.

He says: One thing people traveling cannot very well avoid is the constant change in water and food; the stomach never has an opportunity to become accustomed to anything and in a few years or much sooner the average traveling man becomes a hopeless dyspeptic.

For several years I suffered more or less from indigestion, sour stomachs, headaches, distaste for food, often no appetite, gas on the stomach and the usual unpleasant effects of imperfect digestion.

Nearly every traveling man has his favorite remedy for different troubles and I tried all of them with indifferent results. Finally on the train between Pittsburg and Philadelphia one day, I overheard a conversation between two ladies, one of whom had suffered severely from indigestion and stated she had been completely cured by a remedy which she called Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets; I remembered the conversation because it directly interested me; and at the next town I inquired at the first drug store and bought a package for fifty cents, and from that day to this I have never been without them. They are pleasant tasting tablets, not a secret patent medicine but composed of vegetable essences, pure pepsin, fruit salts and Golden Seal; being in tablet form they never lose their good qualities like a liquid medicine would, but are always fresh and ready for use.

I carry a box in my pocket continually, and whenever I see any symptoms of indigestion I take one, also one after each meal, and for a year and a half I have not lost a day by reason of poor health and can eat anything and relish what I eat; my digestion is absolutely perfect as far as I can judge from my feelings, and although there may be other stomach medicines just as good as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, I do not know what they are. Certainly for people who travel they are far ahead of any liquid medicine, as they are so convenient, they can be carried in the pocket and used whenever needed.

I believe they are sold by all druggists at 50 cents, and believe anyone who will try them will agree with me, that for indigestion and stomach trouble Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are unequalled.
